Ensor correspondent to the Owensboro Messenger says: 'On the last Sabbath Rev. Willis Smith preached his last Sermon as pastor of Mt. Zion congregation of the Cumberland Presbyterian church, to a large and attentive audience. Mr. Smith has been the regular pastor of this congregation for sixteen years. He now eaves us to give one-half of his ministerial services to his home church, Pleasant Ridge, near Owensboro. It is with regret that we part with him as our pastor. Mr. Smith's labors have been blessed with much good and the prayers of the people will go with him in his work at his home church, hoping that he will one day again be the shepherd of this flock."

DAINY DEANE.

EVEN THE KING Had to Make a Return Like a Common

Of all the extraordinary communications that have ever reached King Humbert since he ascended to the which he received the other day for the purpose of inquiring in all seriousness whether he could read or write was perhaps the most extraordinary. And, make matters worse, he formed that he was required to give proof that he possessed a certain amount of education to do so. The letter in question was not the work of some irresponsible crank, but was a full-fledged communication bearing the signature of the burgomaster, or mayor, of the little town of Rheme Notre Dame, in Piedmont, where King Humbert happened to own some landed

As a land owner of the district the name of the king figures on the elec-toral register, and every citizen, before he is permitted to cast his vote, is obliged to furnish satisfactory evidence that he can read and write. Of course King Humbert has complied with the demands of the burgomaster, and has set an example to his subjects by per-ming his duties as a citizen. Italy is about the only country where such an incident could occur, since in other monarchical countries, particularly England, the sovereign and the prince of the blood are subjected to the same restrictions as the peers of the realm, and are debarred from cast-ing votes at the polls for the lower se of the legislature, the theory being that, possessing by virtue of their birth seats in the house of lords, it is not proper that they should in any way influence the elections to the lower chamber.

SAWED A SALOON IN TWO.

Straddling a State Line, It Made a Lot o Bill Lewis, one of the first to settle in Kansas City, and one of the wicked-est men that ever lived there, died a few days ago, says a western exchange. Since 1800 he has been known as the king of Toad-a-Loup, a district which harbored about all the known criminals in town. The saloon he kept in Toada-Loup was hardly less notorious than himself. It was built exactly on the state line between Kansas and Missouri and was furnished with a mova-ble bar. Lewis paid no license, and when the Missouri tax collector called upon him he moved his bar over in Kansas. When the authorities of the latter state attempted to arrest him he transferred his business in a minute to Missouri. He was arrested many times, but had to be released. Concerted ac-tion on the part of the authorities of both states finally ended the career of Lewis' barroom in Toad-s-Loup. The direction of the state line was chalked off on the saloon and the structure was sawed in two from roof to cellar with

HE KNEW A TENDERFOOT.

A Jerssymau's Exciting Experience with a Pennsylvania Mino Mule. Patrick Murray, of Perth Amboy, N. J., had an exciting experience a few days ago with a mine mule at Summit fill, Pa., which he will never forget, says the New York Post. When he reached the bottom of the slope and proceeded to explore the gangway he attracted the attention of one of the mules. He is at a loss to know what angered the animal, but the beast came for him at full speed, and Murray started for a "heading" with nothing but the light of a miner's lamp to guide It was a race for life. The mule was rapidly closing the gap, when the Jerseyman reached two mine cars. He plunged between them. The mule countermarched and began using his hind feet with terrible effect. He kicked the stout oak planks of the car into kindling wood, and while he was occupied in this manner Murray made his escape and returned to the surface. He is fully satisfied that the mine mule is not to be trifled with, es-pecially if you are a tenderfoot with a

A grand achievements and noble deeds of a people can find no truer representation than the productions and works of its most accomplished and cultured men and women. There are many who have no idea of the ability of the negro to excell in this vast field of thought and intelligence. The ability of our literary characters to express its highest and purest sentiment, in the minimum of words and of proof in the distinctive style which aim, namely, to show the capacity of the negro to fill an honored position among the cultured minds. The Jews, at one time, styled all other mankind as ignorant Gentiles, when Greece furnished a Socrates and Plato. Tacitus had no appreciation for a race that produced Moses, David, Isaiah and Josephus. The learned Grecians applied the general epithet barbarism to the out side nations. When Itily could boast of Scipio and Affucanus, the second. The Chinese speak of a nation which has produced men like Newton, Milton, Herbert, Spencer, Longfellow, Cowper, Bulwer and a host of other equally illustrious as "Terestials" and reserve themselves the more exalted appellation of Celestials, and what is more remarkable? The white race in turn, declare that a race which has produced such characters as Bruce, Douglas, Logston, Simmons, Ida M. Wells, Flora Batson and many other like celebrities to be inferior. This unjust opinion has probably served as an inspiration in preparing many of the ablest productions of these eminent writers which has formed some of the highest conceptions of life as some of the wisest rules of conduct.

The Republican rule is now a reality, so far as this county is concerned, and the colored voter can justly claim part of the honor for having made it so. Now we do not think we would be assuming to much to ask for a representative on the jury and on the County Conmittee. Though these are empty honors they would have a tendency to unite the colored
